MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Historical Staff

SUBJECT: Distribution of the History

25X1

1. As I mentioned to you earlier, the Director spoke of my draft for Chapter X (and, by implication, of the history as a whole) as being just right for the information and orientation of the career trainees. That implies the production of a much larger edition than you had previously contemplated. May I suggest that you consult Hugh Cunningham regarding his requirements for such a purpose.

2. In any case, on the basis of interest shown in my drafts for reference purposes, I recommend that copies of the "published" version be distributed to the following offices for secure retention.

- a. The Deputy to the DCI for National Intelligence Programs Evaluation.
- b. The Director of National Estimates.
- c. The Curator, Historical Intelligence Collection.
- d. The Director of Training.
